OVERVIEW:

This webinar will provide findings from a recent study that was conducted with more than 400,000 nurses. Study participants offered insights into what they want in a job/employer, what makes them feel valued, and what drives attrition. The presenter will discuss additional insights regarding what makes them stay and what impacted their decision-making process. The results may surprise you.

OBJECTIVES:

- Review survey results;
- Discuss best practices for hiring more quickly; and
- Identify the percentage of nurses planning to leave their jobs.
